We are Costa Rica

Caribbean

Enchanting Caribbean Coast has wonderful tropical rainforest, overflowing vegetation, diversity of wildlife, excellent eco-tourism opportunities, world-class fishing and miles of breathtaking beaches, where endangered sea turtles come ashore to lay their eggs.

One of the country's most popular eco-tourism destinations the Tortuguero National Park ("Costa Rica's Amazon") is a working laboratory of rainforest, freshwater, and marine biology.

The port city of Limon, capital of the Afro-Caribbean culture, keeps natural jewels such as the Cahuita National Park and Manzanillo, part of Gandoca-Manzanillo Wildlife Refuge, one of the most scenic regions in Costa Rica and one rich in flora and fauna.

LE CAMÉLÉON Boutique Hotel

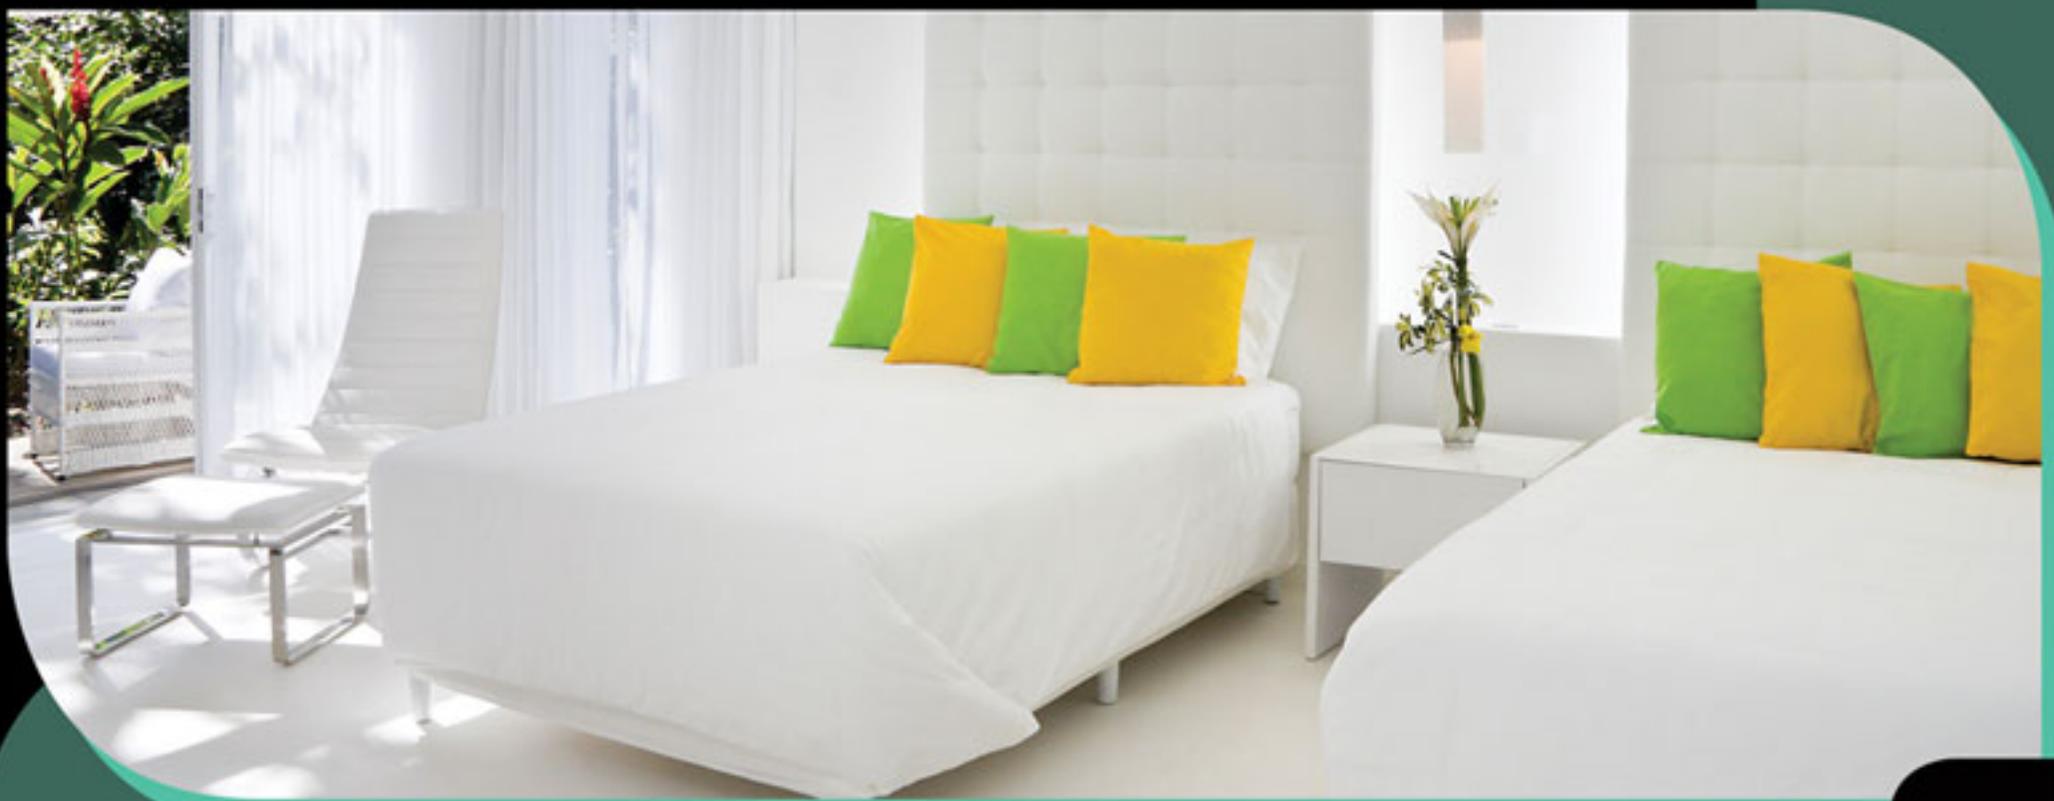

Le Caméléon Boutique Hotel is located in Puerto Viejo de Limón, on the Caribbean coast of Costa Rica. Smart, contemporary décor cleverly melds with the rustic ambience and intriguing lighting that changes color each day, adding a sophisticated warmth and sense of fun. The hotel is contemporary with rustic elements and a minimalist decor, that creates a relaxing and elegant atmosphere, specially designed for the upscale traveler.

The hotel features Le Numu, the international cuisine restaurant that will delight the most discriminating guests, and Numu Bar, the international bar to enjoy an exclusive selection of beverages and music.

Contemporary

HOTEL

Almonds & Corals

A unique sensory encounter that promotes harmony between inner and outer self. Almonds and Corals also provides the perfect place to enjoy a lush tropical and privileged getaway, while combining the opportunity to experience two different cultures, the Bri- Bri's ancient native culture, and the Afro Costarrican culture, giving life to nearby Manzanillo picturesque fishing village.

A unique idea for accommodations in front of a secluded beach; this is a rare opportunity to experience the jungle and sea in Costa Rica, living in the wild, while maintaining a level of luxury and exclusivity.

Manzanillo - Caribbean

Delightful

MANATUS Lodge

Its internal design inspires and connects with the surrounding atmosphere of this wildlife sanctuary, whereas assuring tranquility, comfort and security to elevate any vacation experience to another level!

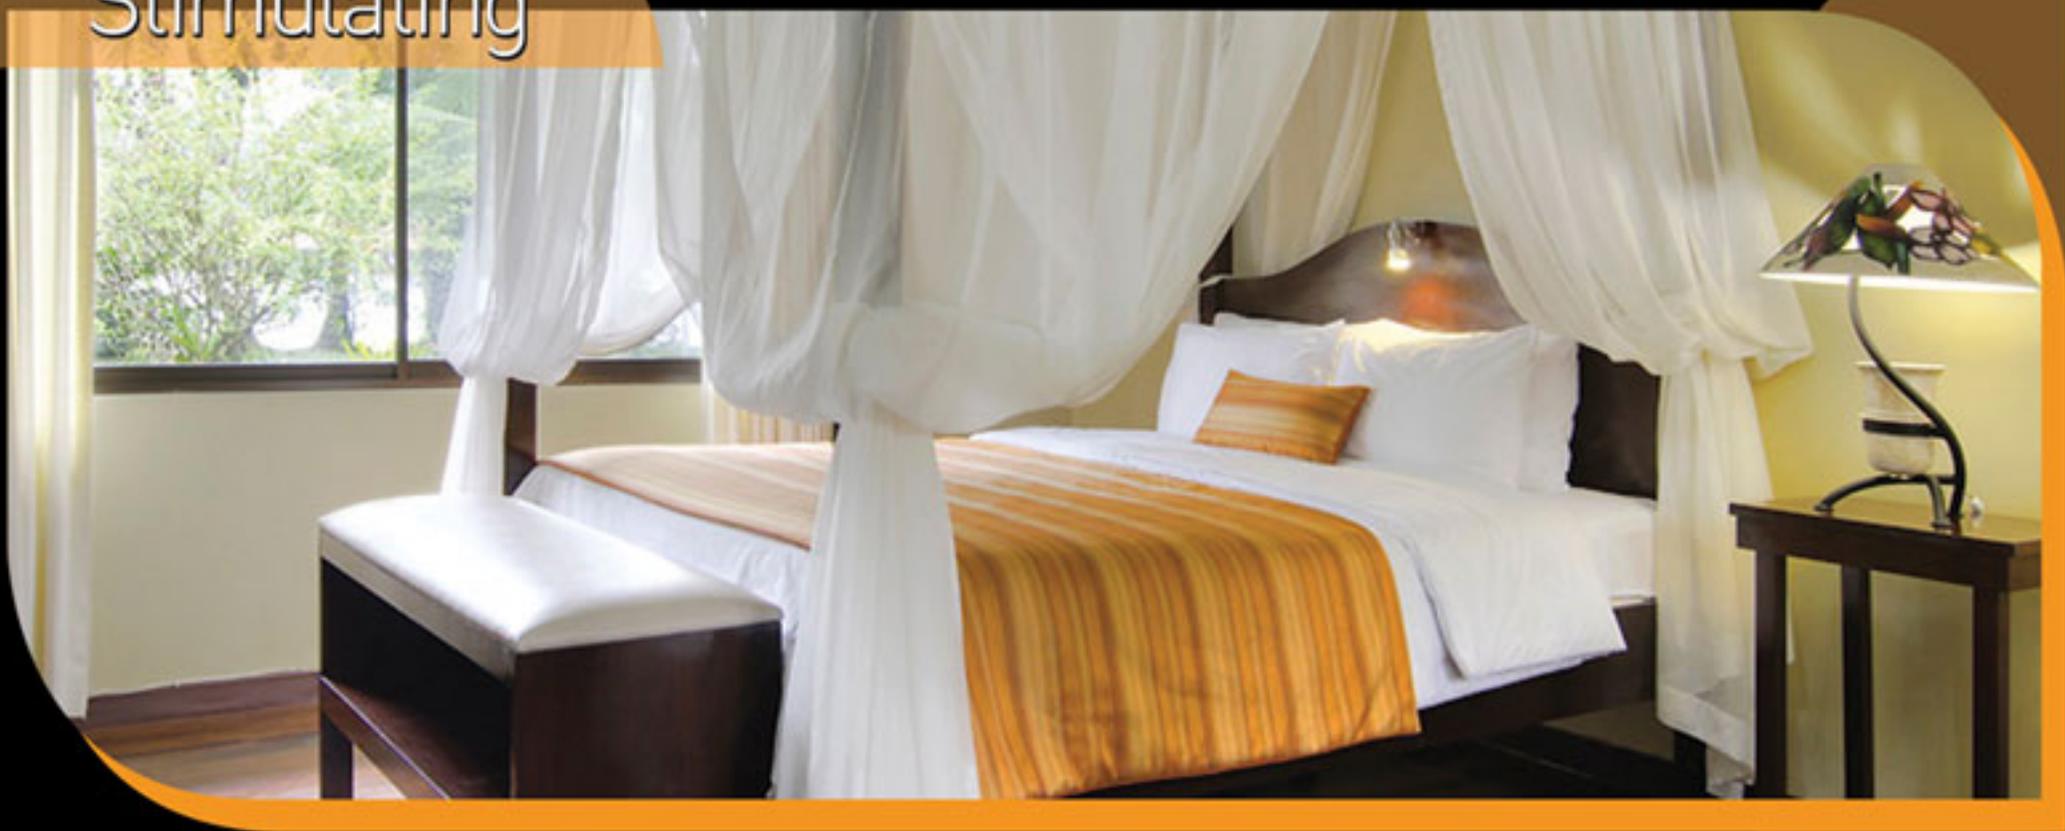

With an extraordinary sense of peace and solace, the finest accommodations are surrounded by the natural beauty of Tortuguero. Manatus offers a unique combination in the area: the comfort and luxury of the rooms and facilities and a restaurant with international and gourmet cuisine offering Caribbean fusion.

Stimulating

LAGUNA

Lodge Tortuguero

This cozy lodge, specially designed for the complete enjoyment of the natural marvels of the Tortuguero National Park, is located on a narrow strip of land between the Caribbean Sea and the Tortuguero Lagoon. It offers direct access to the beach known as the most important nesting site for the green sea turtle throughout the entire Western Hemisphere (July through October).

Serene

HOTEL

Casa Turire

Casa Turire recalls the gracious charm of a colonial plantation home with abundant gardens.

In the heart of a verdant agricultural region, the wild Reventazón River and the Angostura Lake enfold the estate, with the imposing presence of the Turrialba Mountains as backdrop.

Gourmet restaurant with typical Costa Rican and international cuisine even enlighten an unforgettable happening.

Turrialba - Caribbean

Gracious

Pacuare Lodge

Tucked away deep in the heart of Costa Rica's most pristine rainforest environment, on the banks of the Pacuare River, lays the Pacuare Jungle Lodge. Surrounded by nature in its purest and most primitive state; here, you will experience that most coveted of travelers' rewards, an opportunity to savor the spirit of a place.

Truly unique, it is also an exemplary eco-lodge that conserves 300 hectares (740 acres) of rainforest, and is committed to mitigating tourism's impact through eco-friendly accommodations and projects that benefit local communities. Such good practices helped the Pacuare Lodge earn the Rainforest Alliance Verified seal and the highest rating under the Costa Rican government's Sustainable Tourism Certification

Unthinkable

Central Pacific

The Central Pacific has many important national and private pristine green protected areas that provide sanctuary for many endangered species. The most well-known are Carara National Park and Manuel Antonio National Park.

The Central Pacific coast boasts some of Costa Rica's most famous beaches for surfing such as Jaco and Playa Hermosa.

Further south is the area of Quepos and Manuel Antonio National Park. In Quepos, the blue water off this coast provides exceptional challenge and excitement for seasoned, as well as occasional, anglers.

Alma del Pacífico HOTEL

This true luxury and world-class boutique hotel is located at Playa Esterillos and features private beachfront sumptuous and intimate accommodations.

The roomy bathrooms are highlighted by a mosaic-tiled shower that opens to a private garden. The hotel was designed by architect Sherrill Broudy, with original paintings, mosaics and tapestries by artist Charlene Broudy, Alma del Pacifico.

The spacious private villas all feature a large terrace from which to enjoy panoramic views of the ocean or the lush tropical surroundings.

Peaceful

Villa Caletas HOTEL

Inspired by Tropical Victorian Architecture with a touch of Neo Classical influence that magically metamorphosed to harmonious beauty in its 35 luxurious accommodations.

This jewel crowns a towering mountain skirted by luxuriant jungle, featuring a unique combination of mountain and seaside resort and commanding breathtaking views of lush tropical rainforests and the emerald green ocean.

Prized not only for its location near Jacó Beach Costa Rica, its design and décor, but also for its outstanding facilities and first-class service.

Guests are welcomed to bask in seclusion, either at the volcanic private beach or on top of the mountain at one of the magnificent horizon pools.

Incomparable

Si como No Resort, SPA & Wildlife Refuge

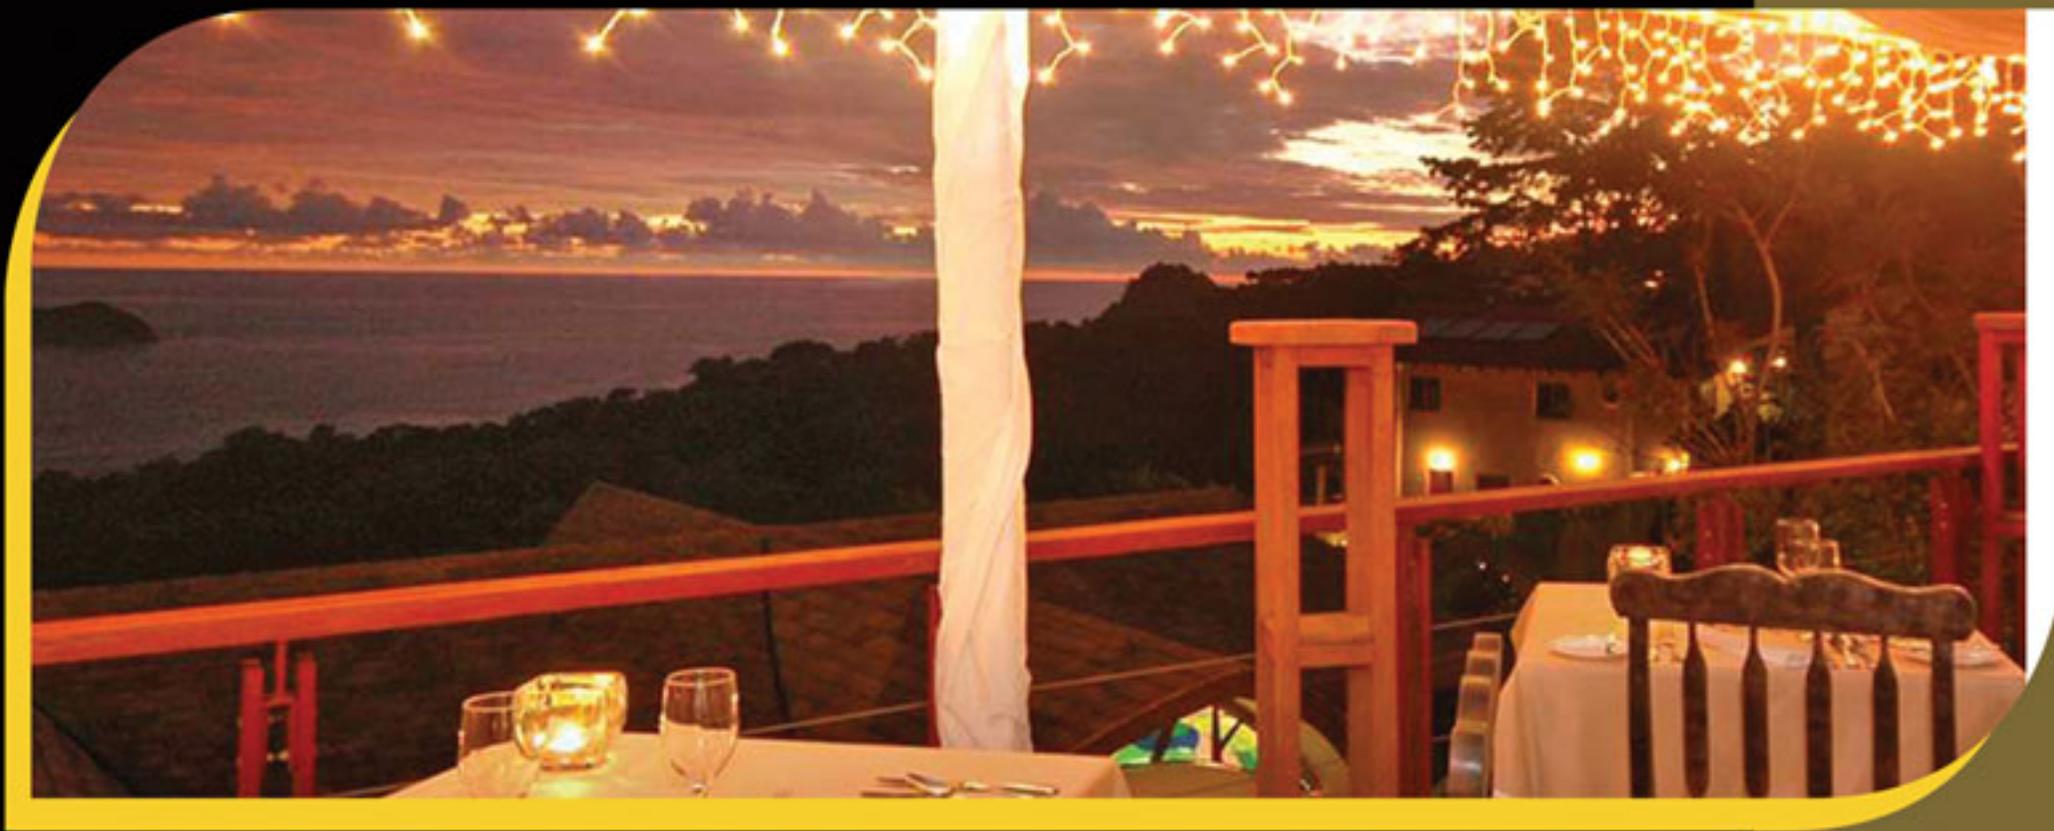

Si Como No Hotel captures the magical nature of Costa Rica's incredible bio-diversity, creating a vacation experience deeply rooted in the culture and peace of this unique country.

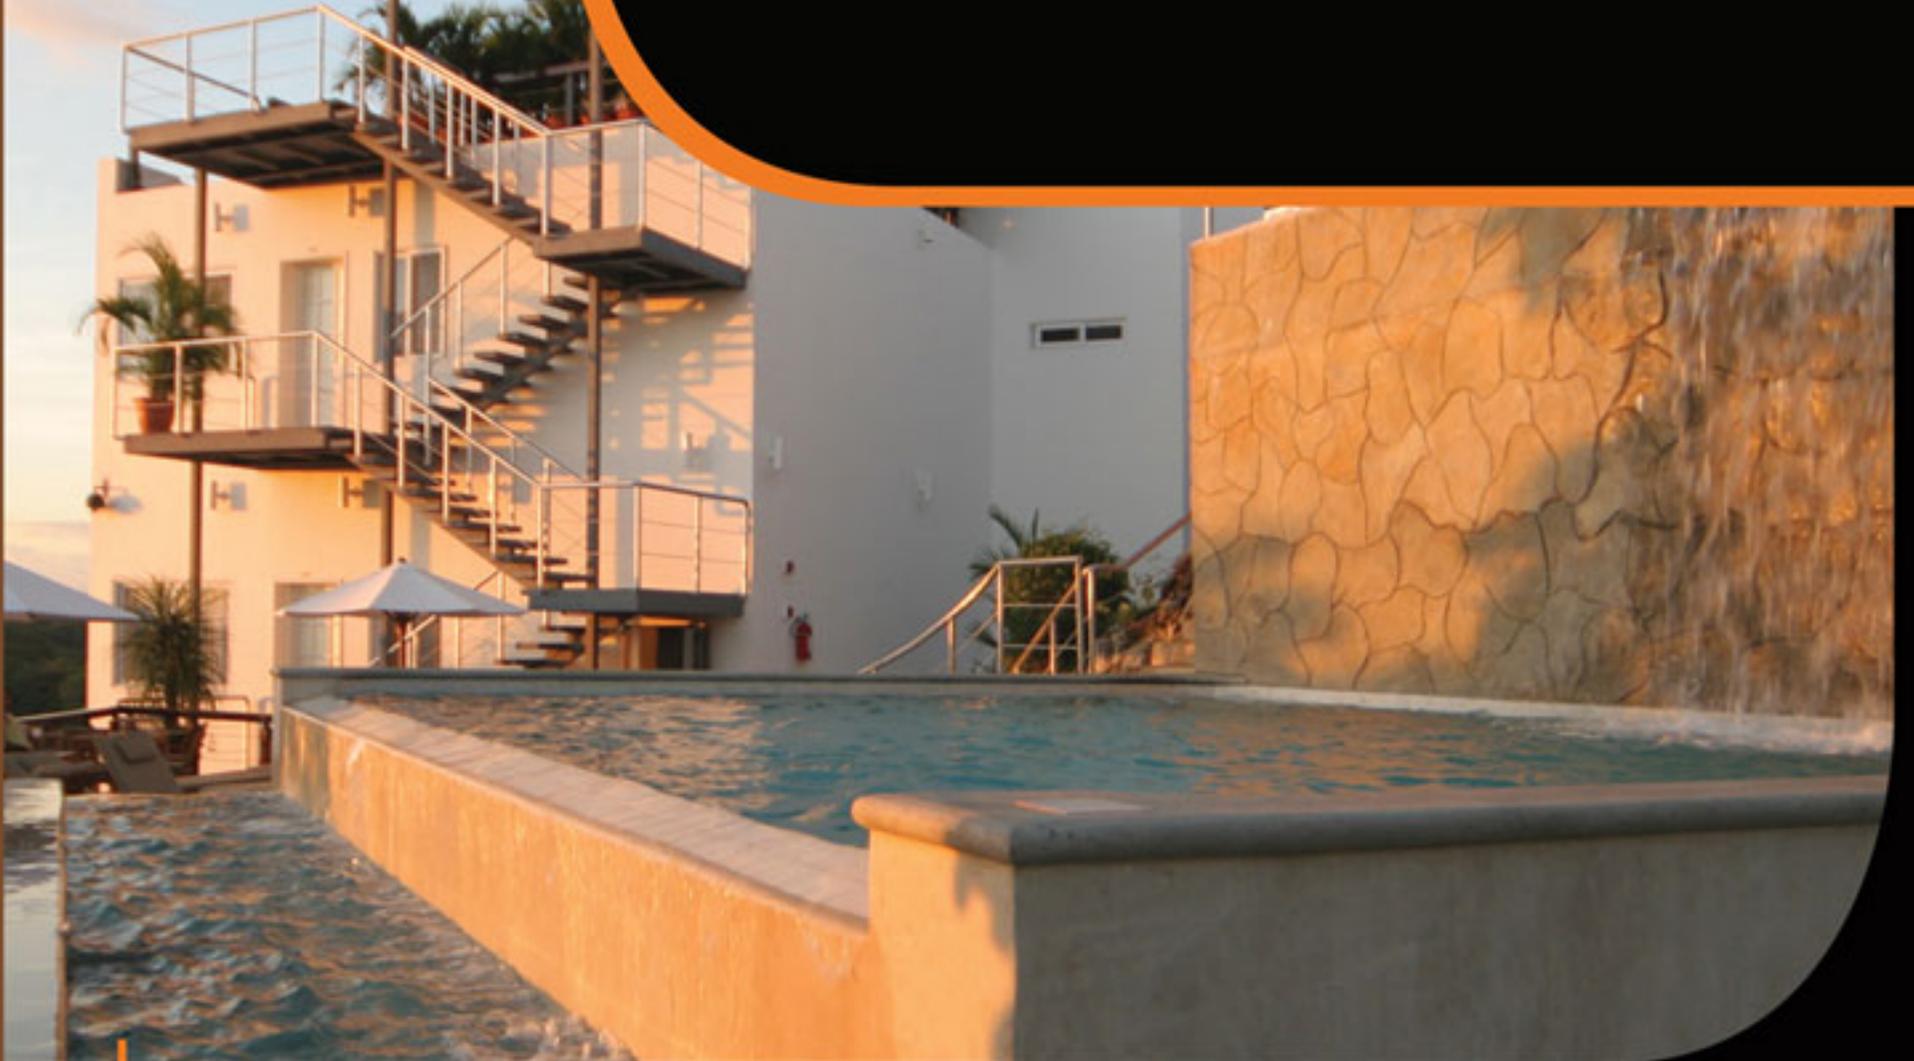

The design and construction of Si Como No reflects a commitment to set the bar for sustainable lodging in Manuel Antonio, including green operational practices and the investment in educational, environmental and community programs in the Quepos/Manuel Antonio area.

This is a special place where guests vivify during matchless and rewarding experiences amid nature's most beautiful coastline landscapes, without sacrificing neither comfort nor fun.

Rewarding

Gaia Hotel & Reserve

Imagine a tropical getaway that offers sublime luxury in an exotic adults and teens only boutique beach hotel and resort.

The Gaia Hotel achieves an ideal blend of modern amenities and natural scenery. Nestled in the magnificent coastal forests of Costa Rica, the hotel's well-appointed, terraced suites and villas offer views of lush and pristine wild surroundings that are beyond compare. Gaia Hotel and Reserve project is to preserve the natural reserve of lowland coastal forest, teeming with spectacular and rare wildlife, for generations to come.

Gaia Hotel and Reserve has deserved a significant number of awards and recognitions; among the most recent:

- . 2012 World Travel Awards Nominee-Mexico & Central America's Leading Green Hotel*
- . 2012 World Travel Awards Nominee-Mexico & Central America's Leading Boutique Hotel*

Sublime

Hotel Makanda by the Sea

The ideal location for adults wishing to experience Costa Rica's natural splendor and variety, while enjoying the comforts of first-class jungle lodging and hospitality. All of the Villas are contoured into the forest and descending mountain terrain with the abruptly inclining hillsides allowing dramatic ocean views from all locations.

Makanda has been built in balance with its natural surroundings. Using nature as the backdrop, the architectural openness allows the rich tropical flora to become a part of the living environment.

Indulging

Central Valley

The Central Valley boasts a nearly perfect climate that enhances the unusual landscapes shaped by the majestic volcanoes and fertile hillsides. Most of the country's population lives within this temperate gorge. The capital city of San Jose is the focal point of this region.

San Jose is the main gateway for a series of tours originating from this city. If arriving into Juan Santamaria International Airport on a late night flight, or depart on an early flight, travelers can stay overnight in deluxe 5-Star hotels and resorts and boutique hotels.

Hotel Grano de Oro

A tropical Victorian mansion was converted into Hotel Grano de Oro, a 40-room sanctuary in the heart of a bustling city that still maintains the warmth and comfort of a private home, located on a quiet street just off Paseo Colón, San Jose's main thoroughfare. Hotel Grano de Oro is a true oasis that provides enhanced enjoyment in its charming atrium terrace and corridors with lush tropical planting, and more pleasure in its rooftop garden terrace with lawn beds and two soothing Jacuzzis for secluded sunbathing.

Enjoyment

Beacon Escazu Boutique Hotel

A luxury boutique hotel, the Beacon Escazú is nestled on the hillsides overlooking mountainous terrains. It was designed in the Spanish colonial style that characterizes the town of Escazú, while also incorporating a modern touch inducing an absolute sense of rest and relaxation. There is something for everyone: a full service restaurant, bar, wine cellar, cigar room, and lounge area. Additionally, guests can experience what it means to be serene at the onsite spa or the terrace overlooking the lush gardens.

Rest

Asclepios

Wellness & Healing Retreat

In the country that does not believe in armies, that loves and respects Nature and is internationally recognized for protecting its flora, fauna and clean air, bore the new Wellness Center in harmony with the laws of life.

Asclepios (honoring the Greek God of Health) takes advantage of natural ventilation and natural lighting and puts together a great understanding and passion for physical, emotional and spiritual health resulting in great well-being.

Located in El Cacao de Alajuela skirting the Poas Volcano, Asclepios offers 12 rooms that evoke the most important medical traditions of the world.

Healing

Xandari Resort

A unique blend of art and architecture in perfect balance with nature gave rise to an inspiring place. Xandari Resort & Spa, is the creation of architect Sherrill Broudy and artist Charlene Broudy, who envisioned a paradise reflecting the natural beauty of Costa Rica.

The villas, private terraces, furniture and gardens are designed with great attention to detail. The 24 spacious villas are nestled on a 40-acre plantation overlooking the Central Valley of Costa Rica, and only 20 minutes from the San Jose International Airport. At an elevation of 3900 feet (1200 meters), Xandari enjoys a near-perfect temperature of around 70 degrees Fahrenheit all year.

Inspiration

El Silencio Lodge & Spa

It is an eco-luxury hotel located in Costa Rica's tropical cloud forest. Ideal for honeymoons, relaxation getaways, nature lovers, family retreats and wellness travel. Silencio, Spanish word for silence, is befitting of a destination where daily stress hushes and the sounds of nature bloom. This upscale Costa Rican hotel features five hundred private acres of carbon-offsetting tropical cloud forest, hidden waterfalls, a nature-immersed spa, yoga, hiking, meditation, and healthy organic cuisine. El Silencio Lodge & Spa is an exciting addition to Costa Rica's best travel options.

Wellness

The Peace Lodge

Awaken to the sounds of the rainforest and waterfalls rather than the city noise. The award winning Peace Lodge introduces its guests to a symphony of purely Costa Rican experiences celebrating the natural wonders of the rainforest and the splendid creatures that inhabit this magical environment.

The ultra-upscale accommodations are uniquely themed to complement the inherent beauty of its rain and cloud forest setting and the detailed architecture exudes a natural elegance.

Every magical sight, wondrous smell, and sensual touch create irreplaceable memories of a journey you wish to take again.

Wondrous

North Pacific

Some of Costa Rica's sunniest and more popular beaches are spread out through the area of Guanacaste. Fascinating national parks that are an unrivaled attraction, picturesque towns and villages filled with an important historical and cultural heritage and a variety of activities, including world-class fishing and diving, await visitors in the second largest province of Costa Rica, Guanacaste.

A very important aspect is that Daniel Oduber Quiros International Airport is located in Liberia, which makes things much easier when traveling to this area.

Punta Islita HOTEL

Hotel Punta Islita gazes upon a secluded beach cove along Guanacaste's open-ocean coastline surrounded by exuberant tropical forest and colorful communities, in a land of spellbinding beauty. This is a place where nature thrives, time stops, and the mind, body and spirit are freed.

Upscale travelers will find a premium vacation destination resort to enjoy cultural authenticity, fun eco-adventures, sustainable luxury, and Costa Rica's signature friendship and peaceful hospitality.

Ideal

CALA LUNA

Tamarindo Hotel & Villas

An exotic property by the sea, Cala Luna Hotel & Villas is a precious paradise fully equipped with modern conveniences, but far away from fast-paced lives and mainstream tourist routes; where adventure and tranquility co-exist to create the perfect environment for all types of vacations.

It is located steps away from the ocean and surrounded by tropical forests and marine parks in Tamarindo, a small fishing village of 1000 inhabitants.

Idyllic

FLORBLANCA

Hotel

The essence of sophistication in a small town out of the Nicoya Gulf. Designed for low impact, privacy and seclusion. Extravagant villas are nestled into the jungle and designed with a quiet elegance that highlights local arts and crafts. Each individual villa offers privacy while peaking-out through the colorful tropical vegetation. Each one features a spacious open air living area with comfortable seating,

Extravagant

LATITUDE 10

EXCLUSIVE BEACH RESORT

An eco-resort that was created around the principles of sustainability. Latitude 10 Resort is set on natural gardens. The resort leaves nothing to be desired in luxury and elegance in its natural background, providing interaction with the jungle and its beachfront location: a fusion of luxurious comfort and hominess that is truly revitalizing.

Staying at Latitude 10 is like staying with good friends at their luxury beach house.

Revitalizing

TANGO MAR HOTEL BEACH SPA & GOLF RESORT

There is a place that is charmed by an exceptional atmosphere. The uniquely beautiful Tango Mar Beach Hotel and Golf Resort, located in the province of Puntarenas, lies within an unspoiled section of the Nicoya Peninsula of Costa Rica. Tango Mar offers the intimate exclusivity of a small, deluxe beach resort on a vast site where you can find a space to call your own.

For the discerning traveler who wants to experience the best of nature, and be within the comforts of modern amenities, Tango Mar offers it all: an ecological mix of sea, sand, monkeys, wildlife and tropical flowers, all within a 4-star, private reserve resort.

Romantic

Northern Region

The Northern Territories are perfect for relaxing and enjoying the wonders of the tropics. The areas of Monteverde and the Santa Elena Cloud Forest Reserve, as well as the famous Arenal Volcano and its surroundings, are excellent destinations for eco-travellers and bird watchers.

The region comprises wondrous sites as the remote Caño Negro Wildlife Refuge that captivates adventuring travelers.

In addition to the natural beauty of the Reserve, the tiny, progressive Quakers community of Monteverde is, in itself, worth visiting. A wide variety of accommodations are offered, such as cozy mountain lodges or 4-Star hotels providing Spa treatments.

THE SPRINGS Resort & SPA

The resort perches one thousand feet above the Arenal Valley on a mountain ridge just six kilometers north of the active volcano but safely outside the government declared danger zone. Their higher altitude relative to other hotels in the area allows for not only incomparable views of the volcano, the lush valley, and the surrounding towns that sparkle at night, but also access to the area's famous prevailing breezes. In fact, the name Arenal is an indigenous word meaning "Window of the Wind".

The Springs Resort and Spa features natural hot and cold springs, four unique dining experiences, and an impressive full service Spa.

Exquisite

NAYARA HOTEL SPA & GARDENS

Arenal Nayara Hotel & Gardens is just a world of comfort and style surrounded by verdant tropical rainforest in the outskirts of one of the world's most amazing volcanoes.

Its deluxe architecture mirrors the beauty of Costa Rica's natural wonders. Its tropical grounds woven with rich gardens create the perfect setting to experience a profound intimacy with Nature.

Each one of the 50 spacious casitas (ranging from 855 to 1905 square feet) provides an exclusive, ultra-luxurious retreat. Each bungalow includes a secluded garden with an outdoor shower and a beautiful terrace overlooking the volcano with a private Jacuzzi for two. An unparalleled experience that rejuvenates your spirit.

Enchanting

TRAPP FAMILY LODGE

Whether you prefer comfort, the feeling of being in the middle of a charming cloud forest, or a genuine family hospitality, you have chosen the right place.

The hotel is located only half a mile from the Monteverde Reserve and 4 miles from Santa Elena Town. The hotel is non-smoking.

Spacious and cozy guest rooms, each with a Venetian window to make sure that you delight with the placid sensation that radiates from this absolutely amazing cloud forest.

Genuine

FONDA VELA HOTEL

The Hotel Fonda Vela was built with the idea that a visit would be a nurturing experience; personally, environmentally, culturally and spiritually. With mysterious veils of mist, torrential rain showers and phenomenal sunsets, Costa Rica pulls guests back to nature.

Surrounded by beautiful tropical gardens, the buildings are an attractive part of the lush, tropical mountainside. The rooms are cozy, yet elegant, spacious and comfortable. Rooms have large windows to allow the outdoors inside with all its enlivening serenity.

Enticing

South Pacific

In the South Pacific region, there are two main developed tourist areas: Drake Bay, and the Southern part of the Osa Peninsula. Both are accessible, only, by local flights, boat rides, ground transfers and sometimes walking.

Stretching from the highest point of the country, Mount Chirripo and the Amistad National Park on the continental divide's mountainous border, to the Corcovado National Park and the Osa Peninsula, the Southern Region has the highest percentage of land devoted to national parks and forest reserves, with the greatest biodiversity of any region in the country.

A remote area with pristine forests and wonderful eco-tourism opportunities, the South Pacific also offers great deep-sea fishing and diving; this region serves out gigantic portions of adventure and nature.

Playa Nicuesa Rainforest Lodge

Playa Nicuesa Rainforest Lodge is an eco-lodge sensitively designed in harmony with the environment, constructed from naturally fallen trees and recycled materials; it harnesses the natural energy from the sun to provide electricity.

The lodge embraces conservation and harmony with the natural environment and caters to travelers interested in ecotourism, nature, adventure and sports.

Playa Nicuesa is located within the lush rainforest on the Piedras Blancas National Park, and fronts the pristine coastline of the Golfo Dulce. Dramatic views of the mountains welcome visitors to the lodge as they approach by boat.

Natural

Lapa Rios Eco Lodge & Wildlife Reserve

Set in a private nature reserve spread over 1,000 acres of Central America's last remaining lowland tropical rainforest, Lapa Rios Ecolodge overlooks the pristine point where the Golfo Dulce meets the wild Pacific Ocean, a destination matching everyone's idea of paradise. Lapa Rios was designed in harmony with the surrounding forest and beach environment.

Built over 350 feet above the sea, Lapa Rios catches the cooling tropical ocean and forest breezes. The main lodge, restaurant and the private bungalows, are built of locally harvested materials and have intricately woven palm thatched roofs.

Embracing

Hotel Cuna del Angel

Cuna del Angel is the result of careful planning and research of the best way to create an intimate and cozy boutique hotel in Colonial and native Costa Rica's style.

Cuna del Angel (Angel's cradle) sits amidst the exuberant tropical forest in Costa Rica, in the lobby of the Earth's most ecologically diverse area.

Astonishing views, all along the South Pacific Coast are the red carpets that lead the way to this intimate and warm retreat. It encompasses the best of both worlds-keeping the glamour and elegance of a modern world, and evoking the spiritual world of the indigenous cultures.
